

HERITAGE WALK

and

AFTERNOON TEA

Enjoy a guided 2 mile walk around the pretty downland village of Hampstead Norreys. Discover something of the history of this very ancient village, which is recorded in the Domesday Book. See where the Victorians went to school, hear of the impact the railway had when it arrived in the 1860's and discover the link between the village pub and a Second World War Spy. After a stroll around the hidden treasures of this small village return to the church for a relaxing cup of tea and delicious homemade cakes.

All are welcome, mainly flat walking over hard surfaces.

Minimum group 12.

£9.00 per person, includes walk and afternoon tea.

For further details, or to book, please contact 07393 200048 or email heritage@hampsteadnorreys.org.uk.